BIG BANG SANG BLEU II

DESIGN

More disruptive even than the original, this Sang Bleu II goes further still in asserting the creative inspiration of the world-renowned tattoo artist Maxime Plescia-Buchi. The eye is drawn to, and amazed by, the cascading geometry of the case, whose chiselled facets form an elaborate architecture that is reprised by the diamond- and arrow-shaped hands. Inside beats the in-house UNICO HUB1240 movement, a flyback chronograph calibre that orchestrates time like an algorithm. Hublot is proposing two limited editions of 200 pieces in titanium and 100 pieces in King Gold.
